

Settlement Agreement and Release

This Settlement Agreement and Release (“Agreement”) is jointly entered into by the Plaintiffs, Buckeye Community Hope Foundation and Buckeye Community Sixty Nine, LP (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), on the one hand, and the Village of Tinley Park (the “Village” or “Defendant”) (Plaintiff and the Village are referred to as the “Parties”), on the other, to resolve the lawsuit captioned Buckeye Community Hope Foundation, et al. v. Village of Tinley Park, et al., No. 16-cv-04430 (N.D. Ill., filed Apr. 19, 2016, and amended on June 15, 2016), and any and all allegations and claims that could have been brought the Parties (the “Lawsuit”).

RECITALS

A. In the Lawsuit, Plaintiffs allege that the Village constructively denied Plaintiffs’ site plan application to build an affordable housing development, The Reserve, at the northeast corner of 183rd Street and Oak Park Avenue in the downtown corridor of Tinley Park, in violation of the federal Fair Housing Act and other federal and state laws;

B. The Village claims that there was no violation of law because the Village did not constructively deny Plaintiffs’ site plan application, but rather informed Plaintiffs that the Reserve development needed to include street level commercial units prior to it being approved and built;

C. Further, the Village disputes that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief sought in the Lawsuit;

D. By entering into this Agreement, the Parties desire to avoid the substantial time, effort, expense and uncertainty of further litigation proceedings relating to, among other things, whether The Reserve was required to be built with first floor commercial units, as argued by the Village, or whether The Reserve should be allowed to proceed as proposed by the Plaintiffs in their site plan application; and

E. The Parties declare that this Agreement is a compromise of all claims, disputed or otherwise, known and unknown, which the Parties may have.

AGREEMENT

In reliance upon the above Recitals, which are incorporated into this Agreement, and in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants contained herein, the sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and in full satisfaction and settlement of the rights and obligations relating to or arising out of the claims in the Lawsuit, the Parties hereby agree to as follows:

1. DENIAL OF ALLEGATIONS IN THE LAWSUIT. The Defendant has denied each and every allegation of wrongdoing, and further has denied liability and damages.

2. NO ADMISSION OF LIABILITY. The Parties acknowledge and agree that this settlement is made to avoid the uncertainty of the outcome of litigation and the expense in time and money of further litigation and for the purpose of judicial economy. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1), and acknowledge that the application to the Village for The Reserve is formally withdrawn.
