

Home / PPC Program / How the Program Works
/ Facts and Figures about PPC Codes around the Country

Facts and Figures about PPC Codes around the Country

This page has information describing the state of community fire protection in the United States. The information can help you benchmark your community's level of fire protection against other cities and towns in your state and the country as a whole.

Distribution of Communities by PPC Class Number within Classification

Number within Classification

Illinois

Illinois

