

Ashley Walls to perform in Harmony Square

Posted: Oct. 10, 2025

Dust off your cowboy hat and fire up the pickup, because it's concert night in Harmony Square!

Come out from 7 to 10 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 25 to the plaza, 6700 North St., for a special performance by rising country star Ashley Walls. She's recently named Rolling Stone's "No. 1 Artist to Watch in 2025."

Hailing from Georgia, Ashley is an all-American country singer and songwriter whose powerful voice and storytelling have earned national recognition. She's been featured in Cowgirl Magazine, playlisted on multiple major country and pop playlists, and has collaborated with legends like Struggle Jennings. She's also been a part of multiple national brand campaigns that showcase her as one of the most dynamic new voices in country music today.

With songs that blend heart, grit, and authenticity, Ashley's music captures the soul of the modern American West, and her live show is one you won't forget. Food and beverages will be sold.

Come on out, bring your friends, and enjoy a concert in Harmony Square!
