

Coleman named Community Development Director

Posted: Nov. 10, 2025

Mike Coleman recently was named Director of Community Development, a position he's held on an interim basis for the past several months.

Coleman has more than 35 years of professional-level experience in the construction and design building industry and is a licensed architect in 10 states and the District of Columbia. He's been a licensed architect in Illinois since 1997. He also is a licensed interior designer and a member of the International Code Council (ICC). He holds several ICC inspection certifications. He joined the Village in 2021 as a building official.

Coleman has a associate's degree in architectural technology from Southern Illinois University and a Bachelor of Architecture (B. Arch) from the University of Illinois at Chicago.
