Charges filed in Nov. 12 shots fired incident

Tinley Park police responded Nov. 12 at 2:37 a.m. to a disturbance with reports of a shot fired in a parking lot in the 17300 block of Oak Park Avenue. Two men fled in a vehicle when police arrived. No one was injured in the disturbance or by the gunshot.

Police charged Ramsey T. Shelby, 22, of Orland Park, with unlawful possession of a weapon by a felon and aggravated discharge of a firearm. Both charges are felonies, and Shelby was taken into custody and transported to Cook County Jail.

Judge Peter Felice issued a warrant for the second man, Ahmad R. Ismail, 22, of Tinley Park, who is not in custody and is wanted for aggravated fleeing and eluding. The bond on the warrant is $50,000.
