Tinley police investigating home invasion

The Tinley Park Police Department is investigating a home invasion that occurred just before midnight on Saturday, Aug. 12 in the 8000 block of Pottawatomi Trail in Tinley Park.

Police said three men armed with handguns entered a single-family home through an open garage door and demanded cell phones, electronics and cash from the people inside. The men locked the homeowners and several guests in the basement before leaving in an unknown vehicle.

Witnesses described the offenders as one white male and two black males, all between the ages of 18 and 25.

Three people sustained minor injuries and were checked by paramedics on the scene.

The case is under investigation. Anyone with information should contact the Tinley Park Police Department at (708) 444-5300.
