Four arrested after vehicle vs. garage incident in Tinley Park

Tinley Park police on Thursday arrested two adults and two teenagers following a vehicle vs. garage incident that occurred that morning in the 18200 block of 66th Avenue.

Tinley Park police responded at 5:24 a.m. to the Holiday Inn at 18501 Convention Center Drive after they received a report from Holiday Inn security that four people were walking around the parking lot and looking into vehicles. The subjects entered a white mini-van and were leaving the area without their lights on when police arrived.

Police followed the vehicle as it drove slowly eastbound on 183rd Street and continued onto northbound Ridgeland Avenue before turning into a nearby subdivision. As the vehicle reached the 6400 block of 182nd Street, responding officers were joined by another police unit, and both activated their emergency lights and attempted to stop the van.

The van then turned off 182nd Street onto 66th Avenue, a cul-de-sac, where it struck a detached garage before coming to a stop. All four subjects exited the van and fled on foot. One subject was apprehended near the scene of the crash, and the others were arrested later east of the Tinley Park Convention Center.

After further investigation, police determined the van was stolen and contained items stolen during other burglaries in the area.

Victor Dillion Jr., 20, of Chicago, and Mansurmusa Abdullah, 20, of Calumet City, were each charged with one count of burglary and one count criminal trespass to vehicle. The two 14-year-old teenagers will be petitioned into court for burglary and criminal trespass to vehicle.
