

Lori Mason to retire June 15

Issued: May 24, 2018

Tinley Park Deputy Chief Lori Mason recently announced her retirement from the Tinley Park Police Department. Her last day on duty will be June 15.

"Lori is a fine officer who will be sorely missed," Interim Police Chief Charles Faricelli said. "We wish her only the very best in her retirement and future plans."

Mason began her career in 1981 as a dispatcher for the Tinley Park Police Department. After moving to the Orland Park Police Department in 1987 to work as a dispatcher, she returned to Tinley Park as a police officer in December of that same year.

"Working for the police department I was able to enjoy my career as a street officer, an investigator, a task force officer for customs, a street sergeant, an administrative sergeant in charge of special events and finishing with the honor of being deputy chief, overseeing some of the best men and women I know working as police officers," Mason said.
