

Oktoberfest returns to Tinley Park

Issued: Aug. 23, 2019

The Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce will host its 2019 Tinley Park Oktoberfest from 5 to 10 p.m. Friday, Sept. 6; 1 to 10 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 7; and 1 to 6 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 8 in the north parking lot at the 80th Avenue train station, 18001 S. 80th Ave., Tinley Park.

This year's Oktoberfest will feature authentic German food, traditional oom-pah and polka musicians, a carnival, Oktoberfest beers from Tinley Park and German brewers, a ceremonial keg tapping to kick-off the event and much more!

The Tinley Park Oktoberfest is one of the only festivals in the Chicago area that most resembles the traditional Oktoberfest held in Munich, Bavaria, Germany. Bring out the Lederhosen, pick up a traditional German Stein when you arrive, and celebrate a classic tradition with us as we welcome autumn!

Visit the Tinley Park Chamber of Commerce website for more information, including a list of vendors and a complete entertainment schedule.
